

1055 Let's Give Faces To Our Voices! Friday 5th July

Elaine Barnard

Session: 2 x 3hr

Level: Intermediate

Elaine has been teaching creative textile classes since 1999 in South Africa and internationally. A true artist, she is always stretching her creative abilities and challenging herself to create unique classes. Her quilts have been featured in publications internationally and awarded multiple prizes locally and internationally. In 2022 Elaine was inducted into the South African Quilters' Hall of Fame.

DETAILED COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Come to this class with a willingness to try new and exciting methods of creating a face with a voice! You will be taught a simple formula to get the correct proportions to make a face. We will then collage a face with different textures and use free motion machine embroidery to bring the face to life. This face can be added to a cushion, a quilt or even a piece of clothing. Reclaimed, recycled fabric will be used in class.

Cost of Kit: R250

Detailed Contents of Kit:

50cmx50cm black tulle

50cmx50cm fabric for the face and neck

Fabric for the hair

Red and pink fabric for lips and cheeks

Fabrics for the face features

Fabric for the clothing

Pattern book and information.

There will be a large supply of extra fabric available in class for the students to use.

We will use reclaimed recycled discontinued fabric sample books.

Student Requirements:

Basic sewing supplies

Sewing machine in good working order; must be able to lower the feed dogs

Extension cord and plug

Universal machine sewing needles 90 and 100 (remember we sew through several layers of fabric)

Pritt, fabric glue or any temporary adhesive spray for fabrics

Black sewing thread and filled bobbins
