

2015 Never-Ending Log Cabin Saturday 6th July

Session: 2 x 3hr

Level: Intermediate

Alet is a Master Quilter and SAQG Accredited Quilt Judge. She has 25 years of quilting experience and has won numerous prizes in many genres. She likes to challenge herself to do different and 'new' things in quilting. She particularly likes to make quilts using a foundation base and then adding extra texture to it. Her kind and gentle manner makes Alet a very popular teacher in the classroom.

DETAILED COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This is a modern take on the traditional log cabin block. Only two different fabrics are necessary - the background and the featured, interesting fabric. Two different cutting measurements will be given, depending on the size the student wants to make the article. A discussion, tips and short notes will be given about Modern Quilting.

Student Requirements:

Basic sewing supplies

Sewing machine in good working order

Extension cord and adaptor

Cutting board and rotary cutter

Quilter's ruler

Pre-cut strips of 100% cotton fabric (instructions will be given after Registration)

Pre-drawn grid on foundation fabric depending on desired size of article (calico, sheeting or strong Vilene)
Matching thread
