

317H Start a Stitch Diary Sunday 7th July 9h00 – 12h00

Tracy Jackson

Session: 1 x 3hr

Level: All Levels

Workshop Type: Hand Sewing

Tracy started when she was a little girl. After many years of making clothes and dance costumes, she attended a quilt class and finally found her passion. She believes in attending as many different classes as possible as no learning is ever wasted. She takes great pleasure in creating, learning experiences that excite, inspire, challenge and leave students eager for more.

DETAILED COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Translate your thoughts, experiences and words into stitches. Slow down time whilst reflecting on your day and recording it in stitch. Be inspired by the beauty created on cloth whilst you experiment with various stitch techniques in a safe environment.
